- 1 Lisa : I'm hungry.
Taro : Me, too.
Lisa : You made okonomiyaki last Sunday. It was delicious. Can you show me how to make it, Taro?
Taro : Sure.
Lisa : What do we need? Shall I go shopping?
Taro : Thank you. We have some bacon and some vegetables. We also need some eggs to make okonomiyaki.
- 2 Bob : Good morning.
Judy : Oh, you're late, Bob. We have already finished breakfast. The banana was delicious. What time did you get up this morning?
Bob : At nine. My clock didn't work this morning.
Judy : I see. Do you want to use this? You can have it.
Bob : Thank you, Judy.
- 3 Hello, everyone. We have to talk about our school parking area. There are about three hundred students in this school. Last year, about fifty percent of the students came to school by bike. This year, sixty percent of us come to school by bike. I come by bike, too. More than seventy students walk to school. Thirty students come by bus. There are too many bikes at the parking area. I think we need another parking area. What do you think of this problem?
- 4 Woman : Excuse me. I want to send this letter to my friend in America.
Ken : There is a mailbox there.
Woman : Well I don't know how much I need to send it to America. I must go to the post office. Could you tell me how to get there?
Ken : Sure. Go straight and turn right at the second corner. You will find a bookstore on your left. The post office is next to the bookstore.
Woman : Thank you very much.
Ken : You're welcome.

5 Hello, everyone. It's Tuesday, October 18. It's time for the school news. I'm Mary White.

Two teachers and eight students from China will come to our school next Tuesday. The members of the brass band are going to play for them in front of our school on that day. We would like to do something for them, too. What do you want to do? If you have any good ideas, please tell me after school this week. I will be in my classroom. It's next to the music room. Thank you.

Question 1 : When will the brass band play for the teachers and the students from China?

Question 2 : Where will Mary be after school this Wednesday?

6 Eita : Hello, Lucy.

Lucy : Hello. What are you going to do on Saturday, Eita?

Eita : I'm going to clean the beach with my friends and my brother.

Lucy : Is it volunteer work?

Eita : Yes, it is.

Lucy : How long have you done it?

Eita : My friends and I have done it for three years. My brother started to do it last year. He is eleven years old now.

Lucy : I want to do some volunteer work in Japan. Can I join you?

Eita : Sure.

Lucy : What time are you going to start?

Eita : At ten in the morning.

Lucy : What should I take?

Eita : Some plastic bags and your lunch.

Lucy : Lunch?

Eita : Yes. After cleaning, we will eat lunch on the beach together.

Lucy : Wow. Sounds like fun.

Eita : After that, we will play beach volleyball there.

Lucy : Beach volleyball! That sounds like fun! Can I bring my brother? He is interested in doing volunteer work.

Eita : Of course.

Lucy : Thank you. When we lived in Canada, we did some volunteer work. We cleaned some parks on Sundays. But we have never done volunteer work since we came to Japan.

Eita : How old is your brother?

Lucy : He is thirteen years old. He likes to play beach volleyball, too.

Eita : I want to meet him.

Question 1 : Who is older, Lucy's brother or Eita's brother?

Question 2 : What will Eita and Lucy do after lunch on Saturday?
