- (1) Sally : You are a good soccer player, Naoto.
Naoto : Thank you, Sally. I like soccer very much.
Sally : How long have you played soccer?
- (2) Kenta : Hi, Mary. What did you do yesterday?
Mary : I visited my friend, Yumi, and ate Japanese food for lunch with her. It was delicious.
Kenta : What was it?
Mary : Um... I forget its name.
Kenta : What color was it?
Mary : Black and white. It was made of rice, fish and something black.
Kenta : Did you eat it with your hands?
Mary : Yes, I did.
- (3) Hello, everyone. I'm Kato Saki. I'm in the computer club. There are nineteen members in our club. We have club activities on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Look at this graph. It shows how many new students joined our club each year.
- Five new students joined in 2009, but no one joined in 2010. More than ten new students joined in 2012. Our club won the high school computer contest in 2011 and 2015.
- Are you interested in computers? We hope many students will join us. Thank you.
- (4) Mike : Which movie do you want to see, Yuka?
Yuka : I have already seen "A Dog and a Monkey." I want to see "Happy Girls" today, Mike.
Mike : OK. What time is it now?
Yuka : It's nine fifty.
Mike : We must wait for thirty minutes. Shall we buy something to drink?
Yuka : OK.
- (5) Hello, everyone. I'm Tanaka Osamu. I'm from Midori Junior High School. When I visited the school festival last year, I decided to enter this school. I came by train at that time. I walked to school with my friends when I was a junior high school student. I come to school by bike now. When it's rainy, I come by bus.
- I want to do three things at high school. First, I want to play baseball. I was a member of the baseball team at junior high school. I'm going to play baseball at high school, too. Second, I want to study English harder because I'm going to visit Australia next summer. Third, I want to read a lot of books. There is a big library in this school. I went there with my friends yesterday. We were surprised that there were many kinds of books there. Some books were written in both English and Japanese. I will look for books about Chinese history after school because I'm interested in it. Thank you.

Question 1 : How does Osamu come to high school when it's rainy?

Question 2 : What is Osamu going to read?

(6) Tim : Hi, Misaki.

Misaki : Hi, Tim. I was looking for you. Where were you at three?

Tim : I was in my classroom. I was talking with my classmates. What's up?

Misaki : Can you come to the party next Sunday?

Tim : The party? What?

Misaki : Don't you know? Lucy is going to leave Japan next month. I will have a party for her with my friends.

Tim : Really? I saw her at nine yesterday morning. She didn't say anything about that then.

Misaki : Lucy wants you to come to the party.

Tim : Oh, really? I'm very happy to hear that. Where are you going to have the party?

Misaki : At my house. We are going to start to cook at nine thirty, and start the party at noon. Can you cook with us?

Tim : OK. I will come to your house at nine thirty. What are you going to cook?

Misaki : Lucy likes pizza, so we are going to cook that. I want to make a cake, too.

Tim : Shall I make takoyaki? I know how to make it.

Misaki : That's a good idea. Takoyaki is Lucy's favorite food.

Tim : And I want to give her a present.

Misaki : Me, too. What shall we give her?

Tim : Um Something Japanese. By the way, who will come to the party?

Misaki : Reiko, Satomi, Aiko, Masao and Ken.

Tim : Can you ask Reiko, Satomi and Aiko about the present?

Misaki : Sure.

Tim : I will ask the others.

Misaki : Thank you.

Question 1 : Why will Tim come to Misaki's house at nine thirty next Sunday?

Question 2 : How many people will Tim ask about the present for Lucy?
