If you are interested in our club, please come to the English room from 4:00 to 5:30 on Tuesday or Thursday. We are going to tell you more about the club and answer your questions. Hello, everyone. I'm Tom Wilson. Have you ever done volunteer work? In the United States, many high school students do volunteer work. I was one of them, and worked for a woman before I came to Japan. Her name was Ms. Baker. She was seventy-five years old. All of her children lived away from her house, so she had no one to take care of her.

Every Saturday morning, I visited Ms. Baker to help her. After I cleaned some rooms, I took her to a supermarket. She bought a lot of food there, and I brought it to her house. After coming back from shopping, I had coffee with her at her house. She looked happy when we talked. I thought listening to her was an important part of my volunteer work. I hope more high school students in Japan will work for other people as volunteers. Thank you very much.

Question 1: What did Tom do for Ms. Baker?

Question 2: What does Tom want more Japanese high school students to do?

Nancy: Hiroshi, I need your help. Do you have time?

Hiroshi: OK. How can I help you, Nancy?

Nancy: My parents are coming to Japan to see me next month.

Hiroshi: Oh, that's good. How many days are they going to stay in Japan?

Nancy: For five days. Three days in Kyoto and two days here in Osaka. Then they are going back to America.

Hiroshi: Do you have any plans?

Nancy: Well, we're going to visit shrines and temples in Kyoto, but we haven't planned anything in Osaka. Where should I take them?

Hiroshi: Hmm...What do they like to do? I'm asking this because Osaka has so many places to visit.

Nancy: My parents like eating. They always enjoy local foods during their trips.

Hiroshi: I see. Then, why don't you take them to an okonomiyaki restaurant? Okonomiyaki is a kind of Japanese pancake, and Osaka is famous for okonomiyaki, you know.

Nancy: That's a great idea. I'm sure we'll have a good time. Then, could you tell me some good places to eat okonomiyaki?

Hiroshi: OK. I'll send some information about good okonomiyaki restaurants by e-mail tonight.

Question 1: How long are Nancy's parents going to stay in Osaka?

Question 2: Why will Hiroshi send Nancy an e-mail tonight?
